A LIVELY ADVANCE BUT LITTLE CHANGE IN BANKING CIRCLES.

THE BANKS PREPARING FOR AUTUMN MONEY DEMANDS-A SMALL PREMIUM CLINGS TO CURRENCY-CHICAGO GAS AND

GENERAL ELECTRIC. The situation in financial and banking circles was little changed yesterday, although the stock speculation developed buoyancy and traders were in haste to "discount" the improvement in affairs which is now expected on all hands. The premium shows obstinacy in taking complete departure, but the impression still prevails that The rates fell to insignificant figures, but still money brokers paid % per cent for cash and sales were made up to % per cent. Paper money seems to continue scarce, but gold is plentiful owing to the recent heavy arrivals from Europe which are pressing upon the currency Brokers said yesterday that in spite of the low premiums on money the transactions in currency ran up to about $700,000. One broker reported that two blocks of $250,000 each had been sold. Most of the currency was bought by the city banks, it was stated, and one lot of $200,000 was taken for Philadelphia.

The supply of currency, however, is chiefly on the increase. The steamer Elbe brought in f161,838 gold and it was announced that a large linenthread manufacturing house would receive $50,000 eagles on the steamer Umbria, due on Saturday. The Sub-Treasury, in cashing checks over its counpaid out 1755,000 gold and $55,000 Treasury notes on silver bullion purchases. There was $81,000 silver paid out, including some small telegraphic trans fers to out-of-town cities, but $85,000 silver was received in the course of business. The proportion of eash payments in the settlement of Clearing House balances again increased yesterday. One large bank paid a balance of $200,000 in cash, and on Tuesday it paid $400,000 in money, instead of using loan certificates. The city banks report that consider able currency is coming in from the country, part of the receipts representing repayment of loans by country correspondents. It is thought that the inof currency this week will exceed the outflow. and this, coupled with the foreign gold which has arrived, is expected to give another favorable bank statement on Saturday. A gain in deposits, as well as cash, is looked for, and it is believed that there will be a large reduction in the deficit in the setback has been given to the possible extension of the plan for establishing separate currency accounts by the Southern National Bank's cancelling its recent circular offering to open accounts against which be drawn on all checks. Frederick D. Tappen, chairman of the Clearing House Loan Committee, called on President Flannagan, of the Southern National, on Tuesday, and the result of the interview was the issue by that bank yesterday of circular withdrawing the previous one, The other members of the Clearing House Committee objected strenuously to the previous tion of the Southern National as contrary to the spirit and letter of Clearing House regulations, well as being possibly in conflict with the Banking law. When the Governmen resumed specie payments the New-York banks forbade discrimination against any form of legal money, in order to abolish the custom of keep-"special" gold accounts in the banks. currency account would be equivalent discrimination against the regular Clearing House funds, with which all settlements are now prevalent to a large extent yesterday that the increasing resources of the banks could be taxed to stimulate Wall Street speculation. The banks strengthening their resources to provide for moving the crops next month, and to take care heavy mercantile settlements falling due in autumn. A big "buil" speculation would indemand for money, and this is said to be a most inopportune time for increasing the drain on the resources of the banks. Many commission houses are taking this view of the exigencies of the next few weeks, and are advising conservatism on the part of their clients. stock market, however, enjoyed a substantial advance in values yesterday, and there was a cided increase in the volume of business done. About half the total record of transactions was covered in the first two hours of business, and it was in that time that the best prices generally scored. Through the afternoon the influence of realizing sales was witnessed in some important reactions, although they left a large part of the the close. The sensational feature was American Sugar Refining, which monopolized about one-quarter of the total dealings. Since last Thursgrowing and prices have been rising at the rate Yesterday the price ran up to 86, representing a net advance of nearly is per cent in a week, and a recovery from the July "panic" price of over 24 per cent. There was a late reaction to $11s, showing a net gain for the day of 11s per cent. The other industrial shares were generally higher. Chicago Gas rose to be, a gain of nearly 7 points in a week, but it reacted to 53% against 52% Tuesday night. The Street is full of contradictory rumors regarding the distribution of the scrip dividend declared in Chicago The following dispatch was received from Philadelphia: "President John B. The Fidelity Company has not been advised of the declaration of a dividend payable in scrip. In the first place, the Chicago Gas Company does not declare dividends. The companies under its control can declare dividends, but the money thus appropriated is sent to us. We in turn forward it to a trust company in New-York City, which disburses it among the holders of Chicago Gas Company's certificates, issued by us, the Fidelity Com pany being trustee for the certificate holders. We are opposed to paying a dividend in scrip, and I am free to tell you now that the dividend will not be paid in scrip. We do not propose making the Fidelity responsible for it. If the four companies in the Chicago Gas Company declare dividends in scrip and forward it to us for distribution, we shain hold the scrip until redeemed in cash." Friends of the Chicago Gas Company, however, declared that another trust company would be found willing to undertake the distribution of the scrip dividend, and it is reported that the Central Trust Com-

There were no fresh developments, except rumors that the next dividend would be pussed. On this point Vice-President Griffm, of the company, was quoted as saying that the question of dividends had not come up in any meeting before the Board of Directors, and if any director had said the dividends would be passed it was his individual opinion only. In the general list the course of values may be illustrated by a few instances: St. Paul rose from 50'4 at Tuesday's close to 58'2, and then fell to 57'2; Rock Island rose from 60'4 on Tuesday to 62, ending at 51'4; Chicago, Burfington and Quincy rose from 73'4 to 28'2, ending at 51'4; Chicago, Burfington and Quincy rose from 73'4 to 28'4, and Neshville rose from 17 to 18'4, at 13'4, in the stock of 18'4, in the stock of 18'4, in the stock of 18'4, in the stock of the active stocks in the market not one fails to show an advance yesterday of more than 5 per cent from the extreme decline in late July or early August. SMITHS AND THEIR RELATIVES TO THE NUMBER OF 10,000 HAVE A REUNI N AT PEAPACK, N. J. About 10,000 people, all tracing their an a common root, assembled at Peapack, N. J., yesthe descendants of John Smith. Before the dawn of day the clans began to arrive. Some came by rail, some in wagons, and many on horseback. the northern section of New-Jersey, many others from the distant towns in the State, dozens from the States surrounding New-Jersey, and a few who had come hundreds and even thousands of es to attend the gathering. All were made welcome by those of the family who have not strayed away from where John Smith married and raised his numerous family of children.

Yesterday's reunion was the eighteenth gathering of the Smiths at Peapack; John Smith, who was the common ancestor of those who gathered yesterday, went to Hunterdon County 150 years ago this year. He was a boy at the time, and his early life is a blank in the family history, except that it is known he hailed from Long Island, where he was born, for who his parents were he never told, if he knew. He was of Dutch origin, but whether Holland or America was his birthplace is uncertain. Smith was employed by a farmer named Hassel. He worked on the farm for years, and fell in love with Christina, one of Hassel's daughters. were married and settled on a farm not far from Peapack. Seventeen children were born, nine boys and eight girls. John Smith died in 1791. All his children lived to be over sixty years old, and one lived 104 years. All of the seventeen, with one exception, made homes for themselves

The single exception was one of the sons who went to Seneca County, N. Y. In 1874 the descendants of the son who had gone to Seneca County held a reunion. An invitation was sent to the Peapack Smiths to attend. When those who visited the Seneca County family returned, they determined to have the same kind of an assemblage at Peapack. It took two years to make the arrangements, and in 1876 2,000 perso An association was formed for the pres ervation of family ties. All, no matter their names may be, so long as John Smith was an ancestor, may John in 1877 there were 19,000 people at the reunion, and at about this number the attendance has remained. The Rev. Mr. Kerr. of the Presbyterian Church at Chester, addressed the gathering yesterday, as did the Rev. Rudolph Kuebler, of Hackensack, and the Rev. George W. Scarlett, of New-Hurley, N. V.

personal enjoyment when rightly used. many, who live better than others, and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liqui! laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste the retreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lavative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them, and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c. and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not scoopt any substitute if offered.

THE COURTS.

A LAWYER CHARGED WITH PERJURY. In setting aside an attachment which Morris Moses, through his lawyer, E. Townsend Goldberg, obtained against G. M. Miller, in an action to recover $3,700 on an alleged account stated, Judge Giegerich, of the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday decided that perjury had been committed in proper authorities. The lawyer, he said, violated the court rules in making the application for an attachment in the Supreme, and perhaps Superior Court, before he had applied to the Court of Common Pleas. The old papers had been used in part with only the court name erased, whereas Moses made affidavit before the Court of Common Pleas that no previous application for the order had been made. The Judge said that this was perjury, as Justice Van Brunt had told him that such an application had been made in the Su-preme Court.

THE POLICE WON'T REVEAL HIS NAME. There was a burglary on Saturday night at the Lenox Hill Steam Carpet Cleaning Works, Nos. 1.404 to 1.410 Avenue A. and thieves carried away seventy-five yards of Brusseis carpet, valued at $190. Yesterday the police arrested Joseph Gillen, a young man who lives at Sixty-fifth-st, and Thirdave., as being concerned in the burglary. They learned he had sold the carpet to the proprietor of a large apartment house for two-thirds its value. The police refuse to give the name of the purchaser, but say he will be brought to court this morning to testify against Gillen. Gillen to supposed to have had a partner in the robbery, who is known as "Boliver," and is now in Chicago. Gillen, who was arrested six weeks ago for intimidating passers-by in Second-ave., was brought to the Yorkville Police Court yesterday

A STEAMER SHATTERED BY AN EXPLISION. San Francisco, Aug. 30,-The Pacific Mail steamer Barracouta arrived last evening in a badly tered condition. The deck house, hatch and saloon were wrecked and matchwood made of the vessel's fittings. The captain reports that on Monday, shortly after noon, when twelve hours out of Comax, B. C., sixty miles off shore, when the steamer's course had just been shaped for Acapulco, a terrific explosion occurred, doing the damage stated. The explosion seemed to have occurred in the hold among the coal, and the captain thinks it was dynamite, but has no reason to suspect any
